ERIN HATCH, KIM JAKEMAN AND UNA RADOJA ATTEND WOMEN IN LAW SUMMIT

On February 18, 2021, Harper Grey lawyers, Erin Hatch, Kim Jakeman and Una Radoja attended the Canadian Lawyer Women in Law Summit. Held virtually, the summit aimed to recognize, celebrate and boost the careers of women in the legal profession and inspire the next generation of leaders. From career and leadership insights to ideas for balancing a heavy workload with personal time, to strategies for retaining female talent and developing the next generation of leaders, the Women in Law agenda offered a day of inspiration and empowerment.

Harper Grey is passionate about gender balance and women's initiatives. The firm is active in various organizations promoting the advancement and inclusion of women in the workplace including the 30% Club Canada, the Justicia Project and the Law Firm Diversity and Inclusion Network.

In early 2020, Harper Grey also initiated the creation and launch of Life in Law (LiL), a readily accessible resource for women lawyers across Canada seeking help balancing life with a legal career. Co-created by Harper Grey partners, Kim Jakeman and Una Radoja, LiL hopes to reduce the exodus of women from the legal profession, by providing them with opportunities to raise issues they face in a confidential environment.
