MICHAEL ROBINSON'S RECENT CASE
SUMMARY, "NO POLICY LIMIT FOR MITIGATION OF LOSS COVERAGE",
REFERENCED IN THE CANADIAN LAWYER
ARTICLE

A case summary authored by Harper Grey lawyer, Michael Robinson was referenced in a recently published article by The Canadian Lawyer titled "Insurance policy's limits of liability clause inapplicable to mitigation of loss coverage: B.C. case". The article discusses a recent case where the BC Court of Appeal upheld a lower court's finding that an insurance policy's mitigation of loss coverage was not subject to the stated limits due to the unambiguous nature of the policy's language.
