We are delighted to welcome our 2021/2022 articling students – Natasha Cooke, Kate McInnes, Meg Monteith, Claire Shanna, Emma Sydora and Grace Smyth-Bolland. Many of these students are returning to the firm having joined us last year as summer students.

Our articling program has been thoughtfully designed to offer articling students a learning experience that is challenging and rewarding in an environment that is collegial and dynamic. With a focus on professional development, our program works to provide them with a comprehensive and thorough exposure to the practice of law to help them successfully transition from law student to practicing lawyer.

To contact any of the students and/or learn more about our articling program visit our students page.
