EXPERTISE

Health Law
Insurance Law

Natasha first joined Harper Grey in 2017 as a legal administrative assistant before being hired as an articling student in 2021 and an associate in 2022. Originally from Ireland, Natasha attended law school at University College Dublin. Natasha obtained her National Committee on Accreditation Certificate of Qualification in 2019 and was called to the British Columbia Bar in 2022. Natasha has appeared before the British Columbia Supreme Court. She has experience in chambers proceedings and trial.

In her current capacity, Natasha assists senior counsel with civil and regulatory matters in the fields of health and insurance law. Her previous experience working as a legal administrative assistant gives her unique insight into the management of files.

Active in the legal community, Natasha is an avid volunteer and generously gives her time to several organizations.
