CHAMBERS CANADA 2023 RANKS HARPER GREY AS A LEADING FIRM IN THE AREA OF LITIGATION: GENERAL COMMERCIAL

October 5, 2022

We are pleased to announce that Harper Grey has again been ranked as a leading firm in British Columbia in the area of Litigation: General Commercial by Chambers Canada 2023. Chambers noted that we are “a popular choice in British Columbia for single-plaintiff and class action litigation, being well equipped to resolve disputes for clients of all sizes, from individuals to multi-national companies” and that our “Vancouver-based team is acclaimed for its specialist offerings in the fields of securities litigation and professional liability.” They went on to recognize that our firm “is particularly active representing clients hailing from the financial services, pharmaceutical and natural resources sectors” and that we “also advise clients on shareholder disputes, bankruptcy proceedings and fraud allegations.”

“We are honoured to be recognized for our performance in this way,” says Commercial Litigation Group Co-Chair Michael Hewitt. Adds Co-Chair Roselle Wu, “Our team of litigators understands the competitive setting in which business disputes take place and the individual goals of our clients in that environment.”
