HARPER GREY CONTINUES TO SUPPORT BIPOC STUDENTS THROUGH SPONSORSHIP OF LSAT PREP COURSE

December 14, 2022

We are proud to continue our support of UBC Allard School of Law's LSAT Preparation Course for Black and Indigenous Applicants for the second consecutive year through our sponsorship of the program. Presented by the Allard Law Indigenous Legal Studies and in partnership with the UBC Black Law Students' Association, this free course is offered to BIPOC students with an aim to prepare them to successfully take the LSAT exam. Harper Grey has always been enriched by its diversity and clearly recognized the benefits of building a genuinely inclusive culture. Our strength is in the uniquely valuable characteristics, experiences and perspectives of our people. It is precisely those differences – the diversity of thought and people – that drive originality and innovation and enable us to better serve our clients. Learn more about our commitment to diversity and inclusion and how we're working to create a workplace that reflects a cultural and generational mosaic here.
