EXPERTISE

Commercial Litigation

As associate counsel with our commercial litigation group, Kristina has a passion for complex litigation. She has experience advising clients across a range of issues, including real estate and commercial leasing disputes, shareholder disputes, partnership disputes, and general commercial disputes. Kristina has appeared before all levels of court in BC, and routinely appears as counsel in the Supreme Court of British Columbia. Prior to joining Harper Grey, Kristina began her legal career in Toronto before moving back to her native BC where she spent time practicing at a local full-service firm.
