Report on Business

Rod Anderson, chair of Harper Grey's Securities Regulation and Litigation Group, has once again been ranked among the "Top 500 Litigators in Canada" by Lexpert and American Lawyer Media.

The Lexpert/American Lawyer Guide to the Leading 500 Lawyers in Canada is a comprehensive list of the most frequently recommended lawyers across the country, and has become a resource for North American firms in need of expertise in a specific practice area. To compile the list, Lexpert asks lawyers throughout Canada to participate in an annual survey, acknowledging the excellence of their peers and colleagues.

The list of leading lawyers is published each year in the Globe and Mail's "Report on Business" magazine.
