Harper Grey LLP is pleased to announce that Siobhan Sams has joined our Commercial Litigation Group as an Associate. Prior to Harper Grey, Siobhan spent thirteen years as a lawyer in the product liability group at Hogan Lovells in London where her practice focused on large scale cross-border litigation in various jurisdictions, including Canada. She began her career at what is now Borden Ladner Gervais, articling there in 1996 after having obtained her law degree at the University of British Columbia. She is as delighted to return to her hometown of Vancouver as we are to welcome her to our team.
