HARPER GREY WELCOMES DREW
LAWRENSEN

June 14, 2018

We are delighted to announce that Drew Lawrenson has joined our Business Law Group.

Drew is an experienced senior counsel and former vice president and general counsel for an international group of companies in commercial real estate, education and retail business in North America and China. In addition, Drew has extensive experience working with First Nations supporting them with practical corporate commercial, real estate and governance advice. Drew's business law practice will continue to focus on a range of industries such as energy, real estate and education.

We are pleased to welcome Drew and look forward to the valuable expertise he will contribute to our group. His addition to our firm highlights our commitment to providing our clients with the highest quality legal advice and counsel.
