THE COUNTDOWN IS ON – THREE WEEKS UNTIL ACCESS PRO BONO'S 2018 "LEGAL ADVICE-A-THON"

August 17, 2018

Only a few weeks until Access Pro Bono's 2018 "Legal Advice-A-Thon" is hosted in BC on two separate dates – the first at Victoria Square Park on September 7 and the second at the Vancouver Art Gallery – North Plaza on September 12. Both days will run from 10:00AM to 5:00PM. A telephone clinic will also be held for those unable to make it to the outdoor clinics which will allow volunteers to reach even more people in need of legal advice across the province.

Not only are we the event's Title Sponsor for the fifth consecutive year – we also have numerous lawyers from our firm volunteering their time to provide free legal advice on the above dates.

We urge you to consider volunteering in this year's Legal Advice-A-Thon to help raise much needed funds for Access Pro Bono's vital programs.
