WILLIAM CLARK AND JULIE GIBSON CO-AUTHOR "INTERLOCUTORY PRACTICE" CHAPTER IN 2012 BC ADMINISTRATIVE LAW PRACTICE MANUAL

Harper Grey's William Clark and Julie Gibson have authored chapters in the British Columbia Administrative Law Practice Manual, published by the Continuing Legal Education Society of BC. Mr. Clark chairs our professional regulation practice group, and Ms. Gibson is an associate practising in the group. They have co-authored the chapter "Interlocutory Practice".

From the publisher: "The British Columbia Administrative Law Practice Manual provides a framework for lawyers who practice before and represent administrative law decision makers in British Columbia, as well as decision makers themselves and judges. This framework, along with helpful hyperlinks to legislation, case law and other decisions, creates a unified resource for counsel in administrative law proceedings, judicial review, statutory appeals and stated cases. The manual covers both federal and provincial decision-makers and proceedings in both federal and B.C. superior courts. Lawyers will find practical advice on how to conduct themselves at all levels of representation, the roles of various parties, and how to avoid common pitfalls, practice tips on effective advocacy and drafting and dealing with unrepresented parties."

The book will be updated regularly. Subscriptions include online access with search capability and links to the full text of case law and legislation.
