CASE SUMMARY AUTHORED BY MOLLIE CLARK FEATURED IN QUICKSCRIBE REPORTER

A recent case summary authored by Harper Grey lawyer, Mollie Clark, was mentioned in the December 2019 edition of the Quickscribe Reporter. The case summary, “Strata Corporations are Free to Get in Their Own Way when it Comes to Claiming Reimbursement of Insurance Deductibles from Owners,” was originally featured in Harper Grey’s Administrative Law Newsletter and discusses the BC Supreme Court’s recent decision to uphold the decision of the Civil Resolution Tribunal that the Bylaws of a Strata Corporation can narrow the Strata’s ability to sue an owner pursuant to section 158(2) of the Strata Property Act.
