EXPERTISE

Commercial Litigation

Morgan joined Harper Grey in 2020 and brought with her over nine years' experience in the legal field, specifically one year in the paralegal field. She has worked in ICBC defense, plaintiff personal injury, administrative law and commercial litigation. In her current role, Morgan assists the lawyers in our commercial litigation group with all aspects of file management including legal research, drafting pleadings, analysis and client communication.

Morgan is an active member of the BC Paralegal Association.

Outside of the office, Morgan enjoys staying active by playing rugby, snowboarding and hiking.
