HARPER GREY LLP LAUNCHES CANADIAN ADMINISTRATIVE LAW BLOG

New Harper Grey Blog offers immediate access to detailed case summaries and insightful commentary

VANCOUVER, B.C., CANADA – Locating past legal cases can be time consuming, confusing and incomplete if searched for in the wrong places.

The new in-depth and comprehensive Canadian Insurance Law Blog provides immediate access to detailed case summaries and insightful commentary on leading substantive cases involving administrative laws in Canada. The easy-to-navigate case databases and indexed archives are organized by jurisdiction and type of legal issues to make finding information easy and efficient.

This new blog will be a particularly useful resource for:

- Lawyers who need up-to-date and relevant information on all areas of administrative law;
- In-house counsel; and
- Law libraries that want to provide a useful resource for lawyers and students who don't deal with administrative legal matters on a regular basis.
