

VACCINES IN THE WORKPLACE

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW THIS WEEK

With BC exceeding its vaccination targets, regulations lifting and the reintegration of employees to the workplace, employers are now faced with trying to navigate the changing dynamic of vaccines and the workplace. We anticipate that changes to legislation could happen on short notice and have created this Round-Up to help employers stay informed in a situation that is so rapidly evolving.

Here are a few important things I thought worth sharing this week:

IN THE NEWS

Canada

1. Conservative leadership candidate Pierre Poilievre tables bill that would “scrap all vaccine mandates” – CBC – June 3, 2022 - read the article here.
2. Conservative MP removed from Parliament for refusing to provide proof of vaccination status – CBC – June 3, 2022 - read the article here.

Saskatchewan

3. Labour board dismisses complaint CUPE failed to fight for its unvaccinated members; choice not to grieve vaccination policy was “entirely reasonable” – CBC – June 7, 2022 - read the article here.

Ontario

4. Unvaccinated Toronto police officers, staff to return to work on June 21 as police service lifts vaccine mandate – Global News – June 1, 2022 - read the article here.

I hope you found this Round-Up helpful. If you have any questions relating to the reopening of your business or reintegration of your staff – our Workplace Law group is here to assist.

If you are seeing this Round-Up for the first time, you can read previous issues here.
